If you are a domestic/ offshore international student who is not intended to apply for a student visa please complete section 9.

6. GENUINE TEMPORARY ENTRANT

The genuine temporary entrant (GTE) requirement is an integrity measure to ensure that the student visa programme is used as intended and not as a way for international students to maintain ongoing residency in Australia.

The GTE requirement applies to all student visa applicants.

International applicants should provide evidence of meeting the GTE requirement with their application form. This must include a statement in response to the question in the form and/or documentation to support claims made in the statement such as evidence of employment or a copy of educational qualifications.

The GTE requirement provides a useful way to help identify those applicants who are using the student visa programme for motives other than gaining a quality education.

Your individual circumstances must demonstrate that you genuinely intend to stay in Australia temporarily.

The factors that are considered during assessment of the genuine temporary entrant (GTE) requirement include: your personal circumstances in your home country, your potential circumstances in Australia, the value of the course to your future, your immigration history, and any other matter that is relevant to your intention to remain in Australia temporarily.

6a. Why have you chosen to study in Australia?

6b. Please provide more details on the research you have done to base your decision to study in Australia and at IHM.
